WHEREAS, On January 30, 2020, the International Health Regulations Emergency Committee of the World Health Organization declared the outbreak a "public health emergency of international concern"; and

WHEREAS, On January 31, 2020, Health and Human Services Secretary Alex M. Azar II declared a public health emergency for the United States to aid the nation's healthcare community in responding to COVID-19; and

WHEREAS, On February 29, 2020, Washington Governor Jay Inslee proclaimed a State of Emergency exists in all counties in the State of Washington; and

WHEREAS, On March 11, 2020, The World Health Organization (WHO) made the assessment that COVID-19 is a pandemic; and

WHEREAS, On March 13, 2020, Idaho Governor Brad Little declared a state of emergency in Idaho to address the COVID-19 outbreak; and

WHEREAS, On March 13, 2020, the President of the United States issued an emergency declaration for the country in response to the increasing number of COVID-19 cases within the U.S.; and

WHEREAS, On March 16, 2020, the Idaho Department of Health and Welfare issued updated recommendations for mass gatherings consisting of 50 people or more and public events in order to contain and slow the spread of COVID-19; and

WHEREAS, A local disaster emergency may be declared by the Mayor within a political subdivision, pursuant to Idaho Code § 46-1011 and other relevant sections of Idaho Code; and

WHEREAS, In accordance with Idaho Code, the effect of such declaration is to activate the recovery aspects of any and all applicable local or intergovernmental disaster emergency plans and to authorize the furnishing of aid and assistance thereunder; and

WHEREAS, The City may pass all ordinances and make all regulations necessary to preserve the public health; prevent the introduction of contagious diseases into the city; make quarantine laws for that purpose and enforce the same within five (5) miles of the City, pursuant to Idaho Code §50-304;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Dave Brown, Mayor of the City of Elk River, Idaho, do hereby proclaim and declare a local disaster emergency in the City of Elk River, Clearwater County, Idaho. All city departments are directed to utilize city resources as follows:

1. To do everything reasonably possible to assist affected individuals and entities in an effort to respond to and recover from the outbreak.
2. To follow the recommendation of the Idaho Department of Health and Welfare and that of Public Health-Idaho North Central District by postponing or canceling all City sponsored meeting the following criteria:
 - a. The event will draw audiences or participants from communities, states, or countries with confirmed community spread of COVID-19 disease.
 - b. The event will be held indoors and bring together more than 50 individuals where social distancing of 6 feet or more is unlikely or not possible.
 - c. The event's primary audience includes or may expose high-risk populations, including adults over the age of 60 years and people with underlying chronic medical conditions like heart or lung disease or diabetes, regardless of the number of attendees.
3. To identify and suspend rules, policies, and fees necessary to encourage city residents to conduct business with the city or to comment on matters of public concern without the need of coming to City Hall or attending public meetings and hearings in person.
4. To take all other reasonably necessary steps to slow the spread of COVID-19.

This declaration shall remain in effect for a period of seven (7) days, unless extended pursuant to authorization of the Elk River City Council in accordance with Idaho Code § 46-1011(1).

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand on this 27th day of March, 2020.
